Mrs. Timmerlake's Luncheon.

Dainty in every feature, and permeated with that fine southern hospitality for which the hostess is famous, was the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Edward H. Timmerlake. The affair took place at the Country Club. Mrs. George Sherman, who leaves next week for an extensive trip abroad, being the incentive. A large bowl of Killarney roses was used as a centerpiece, while smaller vases of the same beautiful flowers radiated to the ends of the table. The place cards and favors harmonized with the dainty color scheme. After luncheon the guests attended the Mist tea, which was also held at the Country Club. Among those present were Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. A. F. Wall, Mrs. Benjamin Marx, Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Mrs. Frederick Macfarlane, Miss Agnes Walker, Mrs. Walter Dillingham and the hostess.

Bridge Club at Mrs. Stevens.

The Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club met this week at the home of Mrs. Lemuel Stevens in the navy yard, those present being Mrs. Frederick Barker, Mrs. G. P. Humbert, Mrs. A. B. Owens, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Ernest Gayler, Mrs. Gaylord Church, Mrs. Guilford Whitney and Miss Sara Lucas. After some splendid rubbers of auction, the prizes, silk hose, were won by Mrs. A. B. Owens and Mrs. F. Barker. The consolation going to Mrs. G. F. Humbert. Delicious summer dainties were then served, the tea table being charmingly decorated with flaming yellow lilacs.

Fort Ruger Bridge Club.

The fortnightly meeting of the Fort Ruger bridge club, which generally occurs on Saturday, met last night out of compliment to Mrs. J. M. Reesler, who sailed on this morning's Sierra. Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Applin were the hosts, and the affair was unusually attractive. Among those present were Major and Mrs. E. H. Timmerlake, Capt. and Mrs. J. Johnston, Capt. and Mrs. C. Clark, Capt. and Mrs. George L. Hicks, Capt. and Mrs. Francis M. Hinkle, Capt. Fred W. Philander, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Baker, Lieut. and Mrs. G. F. Humbert, Lieut. and Mrs. H. Nichols, Mrs. J. M. Reesler, Lieut. George von Deuse, Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel Gordon, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan's Dinner.

A very charming dinner was held at the Pleasanton on Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan entertained. The table was decorated in pink, asters and was electric lights being used to carry out the color scheme. The place cards were of the same rosy tint. Among those present were Miss Warnicke, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mr. Robert Mott, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Giffard and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Nowell's Luncheon.

Mrs. A. M. Nowell was hostess at a delightful buffet luncheon yesterday at her home in Manoa valley. The affair was given in honor of her old Maui neighbors and she had invited her new Manoa neighbors to meet them. Her house was tastefully decorated with garden flowers and ferns. Among those present were Mrs. David Thrum, Mrs. W. Ault, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Waldeyer, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Hons, Mrs. Battelle, Mrs. Kroll, Mrs. T. Church, Mrs. Blake, Mrs. C. G. Rockus, Mrs. A. Gignoux, Mrs. Hayselden and Mrs. Tarleton.

Mrs. Ballentyne's Luncheon.

One of the numerous informal affairs of the week at Kahala was the luncheon at which Mrs. Clinton Ballentyne was hostess. After a dainty meal served in summer fashion the guests went for a swim in the famous Kahala water. Among Mrs. Ballentyne's guests were Mrs. William Hobdy, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Arthur Hodgins, Mrs. Harold Hayselden, Miss Alice Cornet, Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Locke, and the Misses Ballentyne.

Mrs. Mott's Tea.

The Country Club was the scene of the prettiest tea of the week when Mrs. J. Mott and Miss Mott entertained in honor of Mrs. S. W. Meier, who leaves next week for Germany. About sixty or seventy of the latter's old friends were present and the time was pleasantly spent with lively reminiscences over the tea-table. Kala's quintet added the final note of charm.

to the occasion. The Country Club was a bower of purple bougainvillea, perfectly and most artistically arranged. Twenty or thirty huge baskets filled with it were hung about the lanais, while graceful sprays were festooned from the ceiling and twined about the pillars. Tea was served at daintily decked tables in the most comfortable English fashion. Among those seen at this affair were Mrs. Waterhouse, Mrs. Benjamin Marx, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. H. Focke, Miss Del Mar, Mrs. A. Fuller, Mrs. K. Jordan, Mrs. A. Jordan, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Sister Albertina, Mrs. Rentiers, Mrs. Alexander Hawes, Jr., Mrs. Baird, Mrs. E. Timmerlake, Mrs. Geo. Carter, Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. Conrad Glade, Miss Glade, Mrs. Gertrude Wilder, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. A. F. Wall, Mrs. F. Klebahn, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Frederick Macfarlane, Miss Agnes Walker, and many others.

Hawaiian Operetta by Deutscher Club
The Deutscher Club will give the second of its summer series of entertainments next Friday evening in the German House. The operetta Nana-lani, libretto by Jesse G. Gillick, and music by Irving M. Wilson, will be given under the direction of Will F. Rochester. The part of Marcol, a Bohemian prince, will be taken by Wallace Macdonald, and Irene Audley will portray the role of Nana-lani, which in Hawaiian means "looking to heaven." Song specialties will be introduced.—Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall entertained informally at dinner on Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees of Los Angeles, Miss Ethel Rees, Mrs. Guest and Miss Margaret Dietz. The table was attractively decorated with night blooming cereus whose waxy loveliness drew exclamations of delight from the Los Angeles tourists.

Sails for Hawaii Islands.

Mrs. M. J. Berry of Cedar street and her daughter, Miss Ruth, sailed this week for the Hawaiian Islands, where they will spend the next month or two. Miss Berry goes to teach at a kindergarten on the island of Hawaii.—Exchange.

Miss Dickson's Poi Luncheon.

This has been a week of Hawaiian feasts, the fad for poi lunches and suppers being uppermost among the four hundred. Of the numerous affairs of its kind given in the past several days, Miss Irene Dickson's luncheon on Thursday was unusually attractive. The dining room of her Walkiki home was a bower of hanging baskets and ferns while bowls of vivid scarlet ixorias were placed upon the tables and about the room. The hand-painted place cards represented calabashes with rainbow tinted fish tied up in ti leaves. Those who enjoyed this charming affair were Mrs. Hugh Ford Stewart, who was the guest of honor, and the Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. Allison Jordan, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. George Wilhelms, Mrs. Robert Newell, Mrs. Arthur McIntosh, Mrs. Henry Along, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. William Riggs, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Emmet May, Mrs. E. M. Watson, Miss Warnicke, Miss Genevieve Bradley, Miss Christiana Bradley, Mrs. Jack Balch, Mrs. W. A. Dickson, Miss Glade, Mrs. Dulsenberg, Mrs. Ernest Ross, the Misses Margaret and Kate McIntyre and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle's Dance.

The beautiful Castle home at Walkiki will open its hospitable doors wide this evening when Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle entertain at a dance for the Maui polo team. The decorations will be simple but effective, palms and bowls of roses being used throughout the house. Kala's quintet will dispense lively tunes, and all of the new dances will be tried. The romantic setting of the Castle residence makes it an ideal place in which to entertain, and this evening's affair promises to more than live up to the reputation of former dances held there. Among the invited guests are Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, Mr. David Fleming, Mr. George Fuller, Mrs. Francis Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Heilmann, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mr. and Mrs. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. George Isenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Paymaster Walter Izard, Miss Lorna Lauke, Lieutenant and Mrs. Franklin P. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. James Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Judd, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kendall, Princess Kawananakoa, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ford Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey, Mr. Alan Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Miss Helen Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Mr. Guy Macfarlane, General and Mrs. M. ## Mrs. Kinney's Dinner.

A charmingly appointed dinner was given on Thursday morning, when Mrs. Selma Kinney entertained at the Pleasanton. A lavender color scheme was carried out with many tinted asters, and lavender shaded fairy lights. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. W. Colley, Mr. Carruthers, Mr. Frank Spring, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. Robert Newell, Mrs. George Wilhelms, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mr. Blackman, Mr. Reginald Carter and Miss Kinney.

A Wedding to Come.

The following invitation is one that brings the first of the September brides to mind.
Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Craig request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Nina Grace to

Mr. Daniel Frederick McCorriston
Wednesday evening, September the third at half after eight o'clock
Keeaumoku Street
Honolulu, Hawaii.

HILO SOCIETY NEWS

Bachelor Dinner for McCorriston.
[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
HILO, August 22.—Daniel McCorriston will leave today for Honolulu, where he will be married on September 3rd to Miss Nina Craig. Due to his intended departure into the ranks of the benedicts, bachelor friends made him the guest of honor at dinner on last Saturday evening. Present were, George Willifong, R. B. Parks, S. S. Rolph and H. A. Truslow. McCorriston expects to return here with his bride about the middle of September. They will make their home in Pucoo.

Hazletons Entertain.

HILO, August 22.—An enjoyable dancing party was given by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hazleton at their home last Thursday evening, a number of friends attending and enjoying themselves until a late hour. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. S. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. W. West, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney, Messrs. Truslow, Evans, Lowhon, Rapson, Bal, Willifong, Latimer, Misses Davis, Hattie, Hussman, Williams, McCarthy and Mrs. Warriner.

SOCIAL NOTES

Among the enthusiasts who motored in from the country to attend the polo games on Saturday and Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth. The Chillingworths are occupying a charming summer bungalow at the foot of the Manoa mountains and scarcely a day passes when they do not entertain informally at some party or other. They find the country life so attractive that only some special event like polo will draw them to town. The first cool breeze of September, however, will see them domiciled once more at their King street home.

To the regret of all her friends in Honolulu, the charming Princess Kawananakoa is leaving very shortly for the mainland, where she will place her children in school. She will spend some little time in Los Angeles as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ford Stewart. The visits of the Princess have become so fleeting of late that her friends have seized on all the time she had to spare. Therefore her stay in Honolulu has been crowded with social events given in her honor. A number have been planned for next week which promise to make the days very gay for those who move in the Princess's set.

A navy wedding of interest to local service people is that of Miss Lucio Joske Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Martin Matthews, and Lieut. Wilhelm Lee Friedell, U. S. N., which will occur on Monday evening, the first of September, at the home of the bride in Baltimore. Miss Matthews is the sister of Mrs. Reed M. Pawell, wife of Lieut. Pawell of the navy, and is connected with the service in more ways than one. Lieut. Friedell is a member of the class of 1913, and is now himself on duty at the Naval Academy.

Mrs. Wickham Havens, her daughter Selma Havens, Mrs. Robert Newell and Mrs. George Wilhelms were outgoing passengers this morning after a delightful three weeks in the islands. During their stay in Honolulu they have been lavishly entertained, and they return to their homes in Piedmont with most pleasant memories of Hawaii.

Mrs. J. N. Reesler, who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past ten months as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Humbert of Fort Ruger, sailed this morning for her home in Newark. Mrs. Reesler has been very popular during her stay in the islands, and it was with great regret that her friends saw her depart.

Prominent among the guests at the Pleasanton are Mrs. Worthen, and her two daughters, Miss Louise and Miss May Worthen of Little Rock. The Worthens are cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Ago, and in addition have many friends here who have already begun to entertain them extensively.

Mrs. de Forest of New Haven, Conn., who had the misfortune of breaking her hip while enroute to Samoa to visit her daughter, is able to sit in a long chair at the Queen's hospital this week, and in a few weeks will be about again.

Mrs. Richard Ivers was hostess at an informal tea on Tuesday at her home at Kaalawai. Only members of the elder set were present, and the conversation was highly reminiscent of the early days of Hawaii.

This has been moving week for Mrs. John Angus and her daughters who have shaken the dust of Emma street from their shoes and settled in a pretty little bungalow in Manoa valley.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Charles T. Monrober were arrivals on the Thomas this week, and have taken rooms at the Courtland prior to the completion of their own quarters at Lihalehua.

Our Richmond wanderer, Mrs. G. Lacey of Fifth Avenue, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Scott of Honolulu, write from Paris that they are enjoying its beauties to the fullest. Versailles has also been visited. England, Scotland and Ireland have been gone through with admiring eyes, and London was particularly enjoyed. After revisiting relatives in Scotland, the trio will start for the states on the Baltic, August 21st, and expect to be in San Francisco about the middle of September.—Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Tabba Hen Daw, who are spending their honeymoon in Honolulu, expect to sail for San Francisco within the next week or so. Upon their arrival there they will occupy apartments until further plans have been decided upon. The romantic marriage of young Henshaw and Miss Mary Cassidy Henderson, took place last month and came as a complete surprise to their friends. The couple eloped and were married at San Jose and a few days later sailed for Honolulu. The bridegroom is the son of Justice Frederick Henshaw of San Francisco and a nephew of W. G. Henshaw.

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Delightful Toilet Requisite for Fashionable Women.

A daily necessity for the latter toilet whether at home or while traveling, it protects the skin from injurious effects of the elements, gives a wonderfully effective beauty to the complexion. It is a perfect non-greasy Toilet Cream and positively will not cause or encourage the growth of hair which all ladies should guard against when selecting a toilet preparation. When dancing, bowling or other exertions heat the skin, it prevents a greasy appearance.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers and women of fashion for over half a century and cannot be surpassed when preparing for daily or evening attire.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves sunburn, removes tan, freckles and vulgar redness, yellow and muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.
